

TEXT, BODY AND INDETERMINACY

DOPPELGÄNGER SELVES IN PATER AND WILDE

By

Anna Budziak

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	vi
List of Abbreviations	xii
Introduction	1
Indeterminate Genres, Multiple Contexts
Part I. Beyond Textuality: The Bodily Self in Pater
1. "A Prince of Court Painters": The Chronic-led Self.....	38
2. "Denys l'Auxerrois": Selfhood Beyond Myth and Historical Logic	74
3. "Sebastian van Storck": The Self Abstracted from Spinozism.....	103
4. "Duke Carl of Rosenmold": The Self of Romance in Its "Tireless Quest"	130
Part II. Over Duality: The Indeterminate Other of Wilde
5. "The Sphinx Without a Secret": The Indeterminate Other	160
6. "The Portrait of Mr. W. H.": Closure and Fatality	189
7. "The Fisherman and his Soul": The Cerebral Flâneur and Reintegration.....	218
8. The Picture of Dorian Gray : The Sensing Body and the Desiring Mind	245
Conclusion.....	279
Decadent Aestheticism and the Postmodernist Hope
Works Cited.....	301
Index.....	319